Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q. When will the full route be announced?

A. The final route will be emailed to all registered riders and available on our website approximately 1 week prior to the event.

Note: The preliminary routes may be viewed at the following links (routes are subject to change up until final route announcement). Click on respective following maps: 11-Mile, 28-Mile, Metric Century, Water, Snack, Water Taxi Stops

Q. Is GPS route data available?

A. Yes. This will be available for download from our website approximately 1 week prior to the event.

Q. Is GPS required to navigate the routes?

A. No. Routes will be clearly marked with arrows on the road and necessary signs.

Q. How do I know which route arrows to follow?

A. Each route is color coded. Your wristband will correlate to the color of the route you choose when checking in at the event.

Q. Will SAG support be available?

A. Yes. Cyclist Connection (<https://cyclistconnection.com/>) will provide assistance at the main event location and on routes. Each cyclist wristband will have the SAG support vehicle's number on it.

Q. If the route becomes too much of a challenge, is there an opportunity to shorten the route?

A.

- There are 3x water taxi locations that will take you back to Liebs Island. For specific locations, please click on the following map: Water Taxi Stops
- The metric century has a peel-off point that will reduce the route to approximately 41.3 miles.

Q. How often do the water taxis pick up cyclists?

A. There are several boats that will circle the water taxi route. Cyclists should anticipate a boat every 20-30 minutes.

Q. Are water and snacks available on the route?

A.

- 11-Mile: No snacks/water provided by the Tour. However, there are several retail locations in Buckeye Lake Village.
- 28-Mile: 2x snack and water stops.
- Metric Century: 2x snack and water stops + 2x water only stops.

Q. What do I need to bring to check-in?

A. To expedite check-in, please have your QRL code from Eventbrite available, either printed or on your cell phone. If this is not available, we can look up your registration by name.

Q. What time is registration and what time does the ride start?

A.

- A schedule of events may be found by clicking on following link: Schedule of Events
- Note: There is not a scheduled shotgun start. Cyclists may start the route any time after registration check-in. It is advised that all cyclists start their route no later than 11am to receive maximum rider support.

Q. If family and friends want to join for the after-party, is there a charge?
